

Our Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

This voluntary statement has been published in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It sets out the steps taken by TJR Engineering Ltd to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in its business.

About the TJR Engineering Ltd

TJR Engineering Ltd is a small family business involved in mechanical engineering and was incorporated in 2011, and repairs machinery and plant at various locations within the United Kingdom.

The logistics manager, Tommy Roberts, leads a small office whose aim is ensure that disputes around late and unfair payment issues are resolved quickly and fairly.

Our commitment to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

TJR Engineering Ltd is committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking. As an equal-opportunities employer, TJR Engineering Ltd is committed to creating and ensuring a non-discriminatory and respectful working environment for its staff.

TJR Engineering Ltd ensure that recruitment and people management processes are designed to ensure that all prospective employees are legally entitled to work in the UK and to safeguard employees from any abuse or coercion once in our employment.

Tom Roberts

Director